IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH, CENTRAL DIVISION

DENISE ROBINSON,

MEMORANDUM DECISION AND ORDER DENYING MOTION TO STRIKE

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 2:15-cv-738 CW

TAD MECHAM, et al.,

District Judge Clark Waddoups

Magistrate Judge Brooke Wells

Defendants.

This matter is referred to the undersigned from Judge Clark Waddoups in accordance with 28 U.S.C. 636 (b)(1)(B). Pending before the court is Plaintiff's Motion to Strike Defendants' Reply made in support of Defendants' motion to dismiss. Plaintiff argues the reply should be stricken because 1) Defendants raise new arguments for the first time in their reply; and 2) "Defendants cite to a case which Plaintiff has not had an opportunity to address."

The court disagrees with Plaintiff's arguments and finds that Defendants' reply does not violate Local Rule 7-1(b)(2)(A) that limits a reply memoranda to "rebuttal of matters raised in the memorandum opposing the motion." While it is true that the court does not generally "review issues raised for the first time in a reply brief, [the court] make[s] an exception when the new issue argued in the reply brief is offered in response to an argument raised in the [plaintiff's] brief."⁵ Here, the arguments made by Defendants in their reply brief are offered in response to Plaintiff's opposition memorandum. The court therefore will deny Plaintiff's motion.⁶

ORDER

Plaintiff's Motion to Strike Defendants' Reply made in support of Defendants' motion to dismiss is DENIED.⁷
